

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

GDPR Regulations will come into effect from the 25th May 2018 and in order to prepare for the changes we are required by law to advise you of what we hold about yourselves and how it is used. We hold some or all of the following information about you:-

- Company name
- Company address
- Contact details of company personnel, as supplied
- Account activities
- Bank account details
- VAT number
- Company registration number
- History of communications

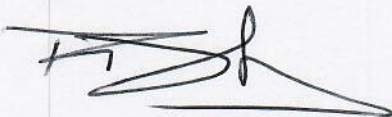

All information is held in our accounting software, company mobile phones, online banking and company desktop computer. We regularly backup our data to a hard drive which is also kept at our offices along with copies of all invoices and credit notes. We do not hold any personal data and would not pass on any information, without your permission. We do not sell information. We would love to stay in touch and keep you up to date on the vast range of products we can supply to help fulfil our customer's requirements. To meet the new standards of data privacy as stipulated by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) we have updated our privacy policy.

If you would prefer that we do not keep you on record for future emails or by mail then please contact us by telephoning 01656 336445 or via email: info@firesprink.wales

If you do not accept the changes or wish to have any of your data destroyed, please telephone 01656 336445 or email us at: info@firesprink.wales

We look forward to continuing our business relationship and receiving your future interests & enquiries, assuring you of our prompt & personal attention at all times.

Yours sincerely
